- Your application for appeal may be deemed withdrawn if you fail to attend a scheduled oral hearing or where you are deemed to have failed in your duty to cooperate as provided for in section 45 of the International Protection Act 2015
- This form must be signed by the applicant. It cannot be signed by a legal representative on their behalf.

*Section 39(4) findings

This form should ONLY be used where the recommendation includes one or more of the following findings:

- (a) that the applicant, in submitting his or her application and in presenting the grounds of his or her application in his or her preliminary interview or personal interview or at any time before the conclusion of the examination, has raised only issues that are not relevant or are of minimal relevance to his or her eligibility for international protection;
- (b) that the applicant has made inconsistent, contradictory, improbably or insufficient representations which make his or her claim to be eligible for international protection clearly unconvincing;
- (c) that the applicant has failed without reasonable cause to make his or her application as soon as reasonably practicable having had the opportunity to do so;
- (d) that the applicant, for a reason referred to in section 32, is not in need of international protection;
- (e) that the applicant's country of origin is a safe country of origin.
